No matter how quickly styles change, Checkpoint is nimble and responsive enough to meet your needs.

We print more than 10 billion tags and labels annually for more than half of the world's top apparel makers and retailers.

Check-Net®, our global network of 29 service bureaus, is online 24/7 so you'll have what you need when and where you need it.

And if you think the fashion business is fast now, just wait. Checkpoint also provides integrated RF and RFID expertise. So we can brand, track and secure merchandise today—and help you get ready for the future.
